Dear Sir/Madam

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. The Trust's response is as follows:

- We can confirm that we do not hold the information you are requesting

I write under the Freedom of Information Act to request copies of all Clinical policies and procedures, guidelines and standards that were in use to govern the clinical decisions concerning the treatment of Haemolytic disease of the newborn (HDN) also known as Rhesus Disease/Maternal Antibodies made in the Neo-natal units within the University Hospitals Bristol NHS Foundation Trust from 1998 to 2002.

These documents will include but not be limited to the management of :

Rhesus Disease
Haemolytic Disease of the newborn (HDN)
Neo natal jaundice in pre-term and term neonates
Hyperbilirubinemia in the newborn
Phototherapy
Exchange transfusions in neonates

And any other interventions/guidelines into how to treat Haemolytic Jaundice in newborns

These documents pre-date NICE guidelines and the parameters of 1998 - 2002 are especially important.

Our Document Management System only came online in 2002, Please note, the Trust does not hold the data in a format that would enable us to fully respond to your request to the level of detail required and a manual trawl for this information would significantly exceed the 18 hours limit set down by the FOI as the reasonable limit. Section 12 of the FOIA provides that we are not obliged to spend in excess of 18 hours in any sixty day period locating, retrieving and identifying information in order to deal with a request for information and therefore we are withholding this information at this time

This concludes our response. We trust that you find this helpful, but please do not hesitate to contact us directly if we can be of any further assistance.

If, after that, you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to:
