Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. The Trust's response is as follows:

Please confirm are NHS currently limiting the use of hydrocortisone sodium phosphate for joint injections?

There is a national supply shortage with Hydrocortisone sodium phosphate injection which we were notified of by NHS England and the Department of Health and Social Care on 20th January 2025. We are following guidance issued to support lower stock levels, prioritising use for patients in an adrenal crisis.

This concludes our response. We trust that you find this helpful, but please do not hesitate to contact us directly if we can be of any further assistance.
